Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	The Institute's endowment consists of five funds established to support the salary and research costs of senior fellows. Its endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Board of Directors to function as endowments. The endowment is the core source of operational funds now and into the future, independent from and not reliant upon external revenue sources. Accordingly, the spending and investment policies are designed in tandem to earn and provide sustainable and reliable amounts annually to support the Institute's programs.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Institute is exempt from federal income taxes on its exempt activities under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and has been designated by the Internal Revenue Service as a publicly supported organization under Section 509(a)(1) of the Code. The Institute and the subsidiary are, however, subject to income taxes on net profits generated by activities defined as unrelated business activities under applicable tax law. To date, neither has engaged in any such activities. When tax returns are filed, it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the position taken or the amount of the position that would be ultimately sustained. The benefit of a tax position is recognized in the consolidated financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including the resolution of appeals or litigation processes, if any. Tax positions taken are not offset or aggregated with other positions. Tax positions that meet the more likely than not recognition threshold are measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that is more than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement with the applicable taxing authority. The portion of the benefits associated with tax positions taken that exceeds the amount measured as described above is reflected as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet, along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination. The Institute files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. As of June 30, 2017, there were no material unrecognized/derecognized tax benefits or tax penalties or interest. Generally, the Institute is no longer subject to U.S. federal income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2014.
